

cer de cuarenta?

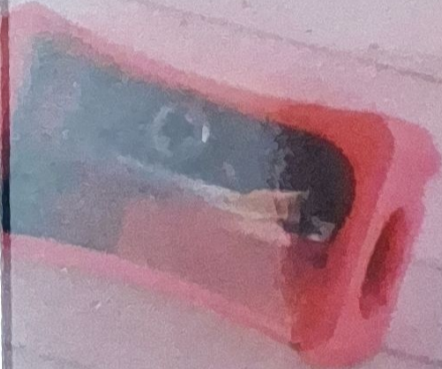

—Cuando una muchacha no tiene amor, envejece pronto. El amor dura poco. Los hombres sólo se preocupan de una cosa. Recuerda a tu padre.

—Madre, es una llamada a distancia — nifer fatigada—. No me lo para que papá. Además, John es un marido... No do a papá, pero estoy seguro no pudo ser pendo como John.

A JOURNEY THROUGH ENGLISH LITERATURE: FROM CHAUCER TO CONTEMPORARY

Dr. MYTHILI B
Dr.N.SUMATHI
Dr.S.REVATHI
Prof. ADISHA MANNA

tuve que c

A JOURNEY THROUGH ENGLISH LITERATURE: FROM CHAUCER TO CONTEMPORARY

Dr. MYTHILI B

Assistant Professor

Department of English

Sri Shanmugha College of Engineering and Technology

Salem- 637304

Dr.N.SUMATHI

Assistant Professor

Department of English

Vels Institute of Science, Technology and Advanced Studies

Pallavaram, Chennai - 600117

Dr.S.REVATHI

Assistant Professor

Department of English

Srinivasan College of Arts and Science

Perambalur - 621212

Prof. ADISHA MANNA

Assistant Professor

Department of English

Sri Sairam College of Engineering

Bangalore - 562106

(PENCIL BITZ)

www.pencilbitz.com

Table of Contents

A COMPREHENSIVE GUIDE TO ENGLISH LITERATURE: HISTORY, THEMES AND GENRES

UNIT - 1

HISTORICAL FOUNDATIONS

1.1	Overview of English literature from the Anglo-Saxon period through the Renaissance, including formative authors and works	1
1.1.1	The Anglo-Saxon Period (c. 450-1066)	1
1.1.2	The Medieval Period (c. 1066-1485)	7
1.1.3	The Renaissance (c. 1485-1660)	15
1.2	Emphasis on how social, religious, and political contexts shaped literary production	33
1.2.1	Social Context	33
1.2.2	Religious Context	38
1.2.3	Political Context	41
1.3	Early forms: epic poetry (Beowulf), medieval drama, Chaucerian verses, Elizabethan theater.	44
1.3.1	Epic Poetry: Beowulf	44
1.3.2	Medieval Drama: Mystery, Morality, and Miracle Plays	45
1.3.3	Chaucerian Verse: The Canterbury Tales	48

UNIT - 2

LITERARY PERIODS AND MOVEMENTS

2.1	Study of literature's evolution: Renaissance, Neoclassical (Restoration, Augustan), Romantic, Victorian, Modern, Contemporary	50
2.1.1	Renaissance Literature (14th - 17th Century)	50
2.1.2	Neoclassical Literature (17th - 18th Century)	54
2.1.3	Romantic Literature (Late 18th - Early 19th Century)	57
2.1.4	Victorian Literature (19th Century)	63
2.1.5	Modern Literature (Early 20th Century)	67

Dr. Mythili B is an Assistant Professor of English in the Department of Science and Humanities at Sri Shammugha College of Engineering and Technology, Salem. She is a dedicated academician with a strong interest in the historical development of English literature and its contemporary relevance. Her teaching and research focus on literary movements, canonical writers and evolving critical perspectives, enabling students to gain a comprehensive understanding of the discipline. Her book, A Journey through English Literature: From Chaucer to Contemporary, reflects her scholarly commitment to exploring the growth of English literature across different ages. Designed to serve both students and researchers, the work provides valuable insights into the richness and diversity of literary traditions while tracing their intellectual and cultural significance. Through her academic pursuits, she seeks to inspire critical inquiry, promote literary appreciation and encourage learners to engage thoughtfully with literature as a dynamic field of study.

Dr. N. Sumathi is an Assistant Professor in the Department of English, Vels Institute of Science, Technology and Advanced Studies. She is a passionate writer and teacher. She has presented various research papers in conferences and has published various research papers in both Scopus and UGC journals. She has won awards like Best Teacher and an award for maximum number of publications. She acts as a Resource Person for many seminars, FDPs and conferences. She is passionate about teaching literature and grammar. Her area of specialization includes African American Literature, British Literature, Linguistics, Literary Theory and Criticism and Indian Aesthetics.

Dr. S. Revathi serves as an Assistant Professor in the Department of English at Srinivasan College of Arts and Science, Perambalur. With a strong academic foundation in English literature and language studies, she combines scholarly depth with innovative teaching practices. Her research and teaching interests span Postcolonial Literature, Gender Studies, Indian Writing in English, and Literary Theory. Dedicated to nurturing critical thinking, communication skills, and literary appreciation, Dr. Revathi adopts a student-centric approach that emphasizes both intellectual rigor and creativity. She actively participates in national and international seminars, conferences, and workshops, contributing to meaningful academic dialogues. Her publications, including patents, reflect a sustained engagement with classical and contemporary texts as well as the evolving dynamics of literary criticism. Beyond her teaching and research, Dr. Revathi plays an important role in curriculum development and has successfully guided numerous undergraduate and postgraduate research projects. Known for integrating interdisciplinary perspectives and digital tools, she continually strives to enhance the learning experience and inspire her students to pursue academic excellence.

Prof. Adicha Manna Assistant Professor of English, channels her profound passion for creativity, reading, and writing into her work as an author. Her commitment to fostering a dynamic and engaging learning environment parallels her deep appreciation for language and literature. Drawing inspiration from the subtle complexities of storytelling and linguistic expression, her writing melds artistic creativity with scholarly rigor. Through her books, she offers thoughtful, insightful narratives that both captivate readers and encourage critical reflection.

Pencil Bitz
Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu, India.
www.pencilbitz.com

